

Step ahead

Now that you've finished your degree, what's your next step? You could look for a promising job . . . or take a step ahead and gain the experience and contacts to develop a thriving career.

Zurich's Associate Program prepares you for success with a leading global multi-specialist insurance provider. Through an advanced curriculum of insurance and general business study, coupled with hands-on experience in multiple disciplines, you gain the knowledge and practical experience to become an emerging leader.

By choosing high-potential talent from among our most respected universities, we populate the Associate Program with future leaders in underwriting, claims management, risk engineering, finance and more.

*"Insurance is the cornerstone of the economy
– without insurance,
commerce isn't possible!"
– Stephen, a Zurich associate*
